The CRU process will include full review of all LUO text and potential evaluations of every property located in Kent County, but not in any Towns. The CRU offers all members of the public the opportunity to request changes to any provision of the LUO, and it offers all property owners the opportunity to request changes to the County zoning districts applied to their properties. The CRU 2020-2021 process is designed to contemplate major changes to the County’s system of land regulation, including text and map changes.

The CRU 2020-2021 process is envisioned as three major components: (1) broad public outreach managed by County staff, (2) specific, technical recommendations by a national-caliber zoning consultant firm, and (3) chapter-by-chapter and property-by-property input by members of the public and property owners, respectively, who wish to request changes to the zoning code and/or maps, also managed by County staff. There are no application fees for text changes and rezoning requests submitted as part of the CRU process.

The goal is to modernize and update the zoning text and zoning map. During this process, the Board may create ad hoc committees to study specific issues and report back to the Board. The CRU products will be presented to the Kent County Planning Commission for its recommendation, which will then be forwarded to the Board, along with all the products. Unlike formulation of a Comprehensive Plan, the CRU process is strictly legislative, and it is therefore fully under the purview of the Board of County Commissioners. All public meetings will be held by the Board for all members of the public and all County property owners.
